

Portrait of a Graduate

Connection to Place & Environment

- Observe and engage with natural and physical world
- Understand natural resources and human impacts on the environment
- Care for place and its inhabitants

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Justice

- Develop self-awareness and identity
- Show compassion, kindness, respect for self and one another
- Understand and appreciate diversity of culture, identities, and ideas

Being of Use

- Practice self-care, self-advocacy, and self-management
- Be an active follower, team member, and leader
- Demonstrate integrity, initiative, and volunteerism

Craftsmanship

- Build work ethic
- Work through multiple drafts/iterations
- Select proper tool and/or resources for the job and use effectively

Literacy and Voice

- Communicate effectively (listening, speaking, and writing)
- Cultivate discipline-specific fluency
- Convey meaning in creative ways

Critical Thinking & Analysis

- Read closely, analyze, and synthesize
- Use quantitative and scientific reasoning
- Formulate questions and conduct research

Problem Solving

- Identify problems that need solving
- Plan, execute, and adapt with appropriate available resources
- Evaluate successes and failures

